

Institute of Directors

Where communication is key

The Institute of Directors at London's Pall Mall, the heart of St James, has been a customer of Johnson's Stalbridge Linen Services for over 20 years.

Over 1,500 people enjoy the facilities at 116 Pall Mall each day. Members of the IoD have exclusive access to the five unique eating and drinking places and lounges, including The Restaurant, Cafe Duke and The Wine Bar, as well as the onsite Business Centre for meetings and conferences.

The historical venue makes a beautiful wedding venue and can be hired by members and non-members.

Serge Pradier, General Manager Hospitality Operations at the Institute of Directors, has commented that;

Communication is key

"The IoD works very closely with Stalbridge linen services. The key ingredient for me is communication and Stalbridge get that."

Stalbridge supply and launder the IoD's various coloured table linen, ranging from white to dark blue to burgundy, as well as the chefs jackets, trousers and aprons, for over 20 chefs they have on site.

116 Pall Mall has a wealth of history and has been the home of the IoD since 1978. As well as being one of the most popular business venues in the capital, the building is also a landmark of London's great Georgian Heritage.
