Luxury Linen Hire.....

From eating to sleeping

At Johnsons Stalbridge Linen Services we understand how much hard work goes into running your business. That is why we do everything we can to make sure your service is as trouble-free as possible.

Laundering of Customers Own Products

Johnsons Stalbridge Linen Services do not normally process customers' own work. However, on occasions, we shall agree to undertake the processing of certain items but this is at the CUSTOMER'S OWN RISK. Before undertaking any processing of such items Johnsons Stalbridge Linen Services will issue a written agreement and may request some products to undergo wash trials to ensure that the items are capable of withstanding the industrial laundering process.

Temporary Hire

For one off functions we are able to offer temporary hire for 7 days. Please contact your Customer Service Team for current pricing and availability. Please be aware that failure to return temporary hire stock following the agreed rental period will result in additional charges being generated on your account until it is returned. If by the fourth week it still has not been returned, then a losses invoice will be generated.

Embroidery

We are able to offer a professional embroidery service, including logos and text. Details of this service can be provided by your Customer Service Team.

Dry Cleaning

We offer a dry cleaning service for your corporate workwear. Please contact your Customer Service Team for pricing.

Repair Service

At Stalbridge we have the facilities to be able to offer our customers a repair service, including replacing buttons, garment alterations e.g. shortening of trousers and general repairs. Details of this service can be provided by your Customer Service Team.

Disposable Hot Towels

We offer boxes of hot towels containing 500 units per box. These are supplied on a direct sale basis. Please contact your Customer Service Team for pricing.

Van Stocks

We have 3 vans that operate in Central London that hold a stock of linen, so if our customers in London require additional linen, we have the facilities to get it delivered as soon as possible.
